OREGON PERFORMING IN LINCOLN CITY

For more than 30 years, OREGON has inspired audiences all over the world – from Carnegie Hall to the Berlin Philharmonic Hall to jazz clubs around the globe. On April 7, 2009, OREGON will perform in Lincoln City. The concert will be held at the Lincoln City Cultural Center, at 7:30 P.M., and tickets cost $25 for reserved seating and $20 for general admission.

Todd S. Jenkins, of AllAboutJazz.com says that “over the past 30 years, the quartet OREGON has set the standard for acoustic chamber music that straddles the lines between jazz, New Age, and classical.” For more information about OREGON, visit www.oregonband.com.

The OREGON concert will be the finale of a unique multi-day musical event. The experience kicks off Saturday, April 4, with a two-day, hands-on musical workshop at the Sitka Center for Art and Ecology, coordinated by Dr. Keller Coker of Western Oregon University. Monday is a day off to explore Lincoln City – find a hand-blown glass float on the beach; blow your own float at the Jennifer L. Sears Glass Studio; shop at the myriad of interesting shops or the Tanger Outlet Mall; or just kick back and watch the ocean.

A special fundraiser reception to meet OREGON will be held on Monday, April 6, at 7:30 P.M., at the Lincoln City Cultural Center. The cost for this champagne and dessert reception is $25.

Information to all events will be available on the Cascade Head Music Festival website at www.cascadeheadmusic.org, or by telephone at 541.994.5333. Lodging packages will be available.

The Lincoln City Cultural Center is located in the historic DeLake School at 540 NE Highway 101 in Lincoln City, Oregon
