PORTLAND BAROQUE ORCHESTRA PERFORMING IN LINCOLN CITY

PORTLAND BAROQUE ORCHESTRA, one of the best baroque orchestras in North America and Europe, led by Grammy-nominated director and top baroque violin soloist Monica Huggett, is performing in Lincoln City, March 11, with Matthias Maute, internationally recognized recorder virtuoso. The concert, Vivaldi's Flauto Dolce, will be held at the Lincoln City Cultural Center, at 7:30 P.M. Tickets cost $25 for reserved seating and $20 for general admission.

"In Vivaldi's time, there were two kinds of flutes – the transverse, held like the modern flute - and the "sweet flute," or flauto dolce in Italian, which we call the recorder. Guest soloist Matthias Maute from Germany will explore the sweet tones of this ancient instrument while dazzling us with some of the 18th century's most virtuoso instrumental music. Monica will astonish us in turn with one of Vivaldi's most bravura violin concertos, Il Grosso Mogul." – Portland Baroque Orchestra

The PORTLAND BAROQUE ORCHESTRA concert will be the finale of a two-day musical event which begins with special reception to meet PORTLAND BAROQUE ORCHESTRA principals including Monica Huggett and Matthias Maute on Wednesday, March 10, at 7:30 P.M., at the Lincoln City Cultural Center. All are welcome for dessert, libations and a performance preview, but reservations are recommended and a $10 tax deductible donation is requested.
